

Family Practice PhysicianTanana Chiefs Conference, Chief Andrew Isaac Health Center, Fairbanks, Alaska

We are seeking a board certified family practice physician preferably with obstetrics for a full-time position. We will have openings in the summer of 2006 and 2007.

The facility is a multispecialty clinic providing services in obstetric/gynecology, internal medicine, and family practice. It also includes dental, optometry, pharmacy, behavioral health, community health aides, and other services. Our referral region includes 43 villages in interior Alaska covering an area the size of Texas. Fairbanks has an outstanding school system and university. We offer a very competitive salary with a great benefit package. Commissioned Corps positions are also available. Contact Jim Kohler at (907) 459-2806 or james.kohler@tananachiefsconference.org
